A UVM degree leads to all kinds of success.

93% of graduates have full-time jobs or are in graduate school within 6 months of graduating from UVM.

USA Today named UVM one of 10 best colleges to study health professions.

CNN Money ranks UVM among the 25 top schools for best 4-year graduation rate (20% higher than the national average for public universities).

UVM is ranked 7th among public universities in a Bloomberg Businessweek list of 50 U.S. schools whose bachelor’s degree graduates earn the highest salaries.
A UVM education is an investment.

“During my college search, UVM became my first choice—I’m constantly reminded why. I’ve gained incredible research experience, developed close relationships with faculty, and forged friendships that will last a lifetime.”—BEN, WILLISTON, VT

“Both in and out of the classroom, I’ve learned so much that has helped me become well-rounded. The rigor of the courses I’ve taken and the support from my professors motivates me to always do my best. I feel when I graduate I will be prepared for wherever my life takes me!”—EMILY, RUTLAND, VT

Affordability and access to success for qualified Vermont students are priorities at the University of Vermont. Our merit scholarships provide support for the best students in the state. Our commitment to awarding full tuition and fees for limited income Vermont students allows many to attend UVM tuition-free.

Types of Financial Aid

SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS are awarded based on a variety of factors, including academic achievement, talent, athletic ability, leadership, geographical location, field of study, and demonstrated financial need.

LOANS must be repaid, usually with interest. We participate in the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. To apply for a loan, you must complete the FAFSA.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT is easy to find at UVM through Federal Work-Study (must file a FAFSA for consideration), University hourly, and non-University employment.

For further information, contact the Office of Student Financial Services, uvm.edu/sfs or (802) 656-5700.
